2022 Primary Election Site Review

The Office of Campaign Finance conducted onsite visits to 22 of the Early Vote Centers from June 13, 2022 through June 19, 2022, and to 31 of the Vote Centers on June 21, 2022, Primary Election Day, to provide guidance where necessary concerning the application of the Campaign Finance Laws. The OCF Teams observed in general during this period that campaign disclaimers were appropriately placed on literature and posters; and that campaign workers and activity appeared to adhere to the electioneer marker restrictions. Finally, the OCF Teams did not observe and were not alerted to any conflict-of-interest activities or any complaints involving campaign-related activities.

The State Campaign Finance Index 2022

The State Campaign Finance Index 2022 was published on June 21, 2022 by the Coalition for Integrity at www.coalitionforintegrity.org. The Index analyzes the laws of 50 States and the District of Columbia relative to the scope, independence, and powers of state agencies which regulate campaign finance, as well as the strength of each State's laws on campaign contributions, disclosure of those contributions, enforcement, requirements for transparency of funding of independent expenditures and political advertisements, and the availability of campaign finance information. No State achieved a perfect score. The State of Washington ranked number 1 and led the Index with a score of 83.99. The District of Columbia ranked number 5, with a score of 78.27. Seventeen States scored below 60. The Index highlights the wide variation in state campaign finance laws, notes the gaps in regulating the dollars flowing to state level campaigns, and recommends certain Principles that campaign finance laws should follow. The 10 Principles formed the framework for the questions proffered to the States and the District of Columbia .

The Coalition for Integrity is a non-profit, non-partisan 501(c)(3) organization which works in coalition with a wide range of individuals and organizations to combat corruption in the public and private sectors.
